

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

Anacostia

Wyatt Shipley, of Good Hope, left last week for a visit to Chesapeake Beach, where he visited his parents.

Ella A. Richardson has transferred a half of lot 167 in Anacostia, to Andrew Libbers.

Workmen have been engaged for a week or more erecting poles and wires between Washington and Marlboro, Prince George county, Md., via Anacostia, for the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jordan, of Anacostia, have returned from Leonardtown, St. Mary's county, Md., where they went a short while ago to attend the funeral of Harry Sanderson, a former resident of Anacostia.

John E. Powell, of Rhode Croft, near Anacostia, is staying at Island, on the coast of Maine, where he is spending his vacation.

Miss Olive Isaac is visiting relatives in Baltimore. Watson Isaac is spending his vacation at Lower Cedar Point.

Workmen have been engaged for some time on the erection of a modern frame house for Homer Johnson, on Maple avenue. Good progress has been made.

The Anacostia police force is still in a depleted condition because of the absence of several of its members on account of sickness and annual vacations.

Montgomery J. W. McCormick left the city Sunday with a party of friends on a fishing trip to Piney Point, Md.

Pelleman V. G. King is on leave, and Officer Karl Scherer is visiting relatives in Massachusetts. Night Desk Sergeant A. E. Egloff is still confined to his home in S. street, with illness, and Officer David Crouch is sick at his home in Twining City.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Hutchison and their son, of 122 Pierce street, Anacostia, have returned from Atlanta, Ga., where they visited relatives.

Wedding Invitations Issued.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Ellen Dunn Harrison, daughter of C. W. Harrison, of Anacostia, and Frank M. Pinotti, also of Anacostia. The ceremony will take place Tuesday afternoon, October 3, at 1 o'clock in St. Teresa's church, corner Washington and Fillmore streets, Anacostia.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Driscoll, of 166 Navy place, Anacostia, are entertaining as their guests, Miss Katie Driscoll, Miss Josephine McDonnell, and William McDonnell, of Philadelphia.

Fifteen days' leave of absence has been granted to Frank Virstein, the night desk sergeant at the Anacostia police station. Sergeant Virstein will spend his vacation at his home in the Southeast. Officer John F. Reagan has been transferred from street duty.

Miss Helen Tanquary, of the force at the Government Hospital for the Insane, has gone to Atlantic City for a vacation. She is accompanied by her mother.

The enrollment at the Anacostia public schools this year is much larger than last, and it is thought that several of the grades will have to be doubled, as has been done heretofore when the facilities were inadequate for seating so large a number.

The Masonic Hall here is being used for the manual training and kindergarten classes for several years past, an attempt has been made to pass a recommendation through Congress, providing for the purchase of the vacant ground adjoining the Van Buren building in the west, and the erection thereon of a four-room addition. This will be brought up again at the session of Congress by the school officials, supported by the citizens of this community.

Charles J. Burch, supervisor at the Government Hospital for the Insane, has returned to his post of duty after a vacation spent at his home on Jackson street, Anacostia.

After a summer rest, the choir of the Anacostia Methodist Episcopal Church resumed duty at the church last Sunday morning. The singers were again in charge of Daniel C. Smithson, who has been the musical director at the church for a number of years.

James C. Leonard, of Anacostia, has been elected one of the delegates from the Washington Liquor Dealers' Association to the National League Convention, which will be held the middle of October in Madison Square Garden, New York city.

For German Orphan Asylum.

A meeting was held Thursday afternoon at the German Orphan Asylum on the Good Hope Road, Anacostia, by the Ladies' Aid Society connected with the institution.

The purpose of the meeting was held for the purpose of transacting considerable business relative to the best interests of the asylum. The chair was occupied by the president of the society, Mrs. Rosina Botsch. Reports were presented concerning the recent outdoor fete and entertainment given at the asylum for the benefit of the same. Although the full report of the affair will not be given until the next monthly meeting, it is known that the fete was a successful one from every point of view.

Friday evening a delightful straw ride was tendered the members of the Queen Esther Missionary Society of the Anacostia Methodist Episcopal Church. The ride was taken from here to the country home of Miss Hester Pyles, daughter of County Commissioner W. R. Pyles, at Camp Springs, Prince George county, Md. The following were in the party: Mr. and Mrs. George F. Pyles, the Misses Helen Middleton, Avis Middleton, Minnie Pyles, Mabel Pyles, Bessie Pyles, Leah Tighman, Miss Warrenfield, of Philadelphia; Misses Edith Tew, Lily Selby, Cora Barse; Messrs. Ellis Woodward, Briggs, Percy Barse, Will Barse, Frank Barse, Caudle Golden, Tom Tighman, Thomas Phipps, Henry Price, and Maurice Willard.

Miss Hester Pyles has returned from the country to her home on Washington street, where she is studying at the Eastern High School, where she is enrolled as a pupil.

Miss Emma Ashe, of 767 Dearborn street, Washington, lost a gold watch on Harrison street, Anacostia, Saturday, and reported the loss to the authorities at the Anacostia precinct. The watch was valued at $50, and the police are working on the case.

Under the jurisdiction of Wreath Tent No. 1013, a junior tent of Rechabites was organized at Haines' Hall, on Harrison street, Anacostia, Tuesday night last. The tent is composed of boys between the ages of ten and sixteen years. High Deputy J. J. Murray presided over the meeting, and Past High Representative George W. Shoemaker administered the pledge of the order. Secretary George W. Rue gave a short address to the boys.

The following were chosen as officers for the quarter ending December 31: Past chief ruler, Raymond Middleton; chief ruler, Edward Minix; deputy ruler, Francis McGrath; recording secretary, Ralph Williamson; financial secretary, Earl Barrett; levite, Claude Jordan; inside guard, Alvin Waters; outside guard, Walter Griffith.

Wreath tent has elected the following board of guardians: Shepherd, Harry L. Jordan; councilor, Murray Allen; treasurer, George W. Rue.

Appeal for Temperance.

In response to the appeal issued by High Chief Ruler John C. Moore, of the Independent Order of Rechabites, that the pastors of the District of Columbia preach a Rechabite temperance sermon Sunday, October 8, the Rev. Charles C. Bishop, pastor of the Anacostia Methodist Episcopal Church, has written that he will be very glad to comply with the request, and will preach a temperance sermon on that day.

Congratulations were extended to Adolphus Eckhoff Thursday of last week, the occasion being the seventy-eighth birthday of the veteran, who is at present holding the position of night desk sergeant at the Anacostia police station.

A celebration was held at his home, 49 S. street northwest, in the evening, at which were present not only a large number of friends and relatives, but ten children, thirty grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren.

Funeral services over the remains of John R. Robey, a former resident of Anacostia, whose death occurred recently at Lewes, Del., were held Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the residence of his mother, Mrs. Octavia Robey, 333 Harrison street, Anacostia. The services were conducted by the Rev. E. H. Swann, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, and the remains were interred in Congressional Cemetery.

Forty-three unlicensed dogs were captured in this district last Saturday by the Poundmaster's assistants.

The following deaths occurred at the Government Hospital for the Insane during the past week: Michael Morran, aged seventy years; John O'Brien, aged seventy-eight years.

The first building to be erected on the new subdivision of the United States Realty Company will be a church, which will be located at Pennsylvania and Minnesota avenues. Just as soon as this fact becomes known a large number of persons are interested in the erection of the new edifice sent notices and posters throughout the neighborhood, inviting all to a meeting to be held on the site of the church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. At the appointed hour quite a number of persons assembled and took steps to inaugurate a campaign.

A committee was appointed to perfect arrangements to be put in operation today at the same time and place. Six Baptist churches were represented last Sunday. The meeting was in charge of the Rev. J. W. May, who delivered by the Rev. H. M. Geren, and the prayer given by the Rev. W. M. Nevins. Mrs. D. C. Fountain and George H. Judd had charge of the music.

Were Quietly Married.

At St. Teresa's Roman Catholic Church, Washington and Fillmore streets, Anacostia, the Rev. Charles M. Simpson, daughter of Mrs. Mary M. Simpson, of Morris road, Anacostia, and George Lafayette Thompson were quietly married Thursday noon. A reception followed the ceremony from 2 to 3 o'clock at the home of the aunt of the bride, Mrs. F. C. Bahe, with whom she has lived since her childhood.

Georgetown

Mrs. Henry F. Blount, of The Oaks, Georgetown Heights, is in Cuba visiting her daughter, Mrs. White, wife of Edson T. White. She will return to Georgetown about October 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Stanton and family, of Twenty-ninth and O streets, who have been abroad all summer, have returned.

Miss C. A. Fuller, of Baltimore, Md., is visiting Mrs. M. J. Cathelle, of 3212 O street.

Isaac E. Shoemaker, of 2505 Wisconsin avenue, at the meeting of William R. Singleton Lodge of Masons of Tenleytown, held last week, was presented with the past master's jewel.

Arthur A. Custard, of Thirty-fifth and T streets, son of William A. Custard, of Wisconsin, who has been out of town all summer for the benefit of his health, will leave for home about November 1. The latter, accompanied by his son, Leo Custard, has just returned from an extensive Western trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fischer, who were married Wednesday night, are away on their honeymoon trip.

Mr. and Mrs. David J. Cotter, of 1706 Thirtieth street, will return home in a few days from a European trip.

Dr. Robert Nelligan, of Thirty-second and N streets, is spending a two-weeks' vacation in New York city.

New Boat House.

The Washington Canoe Club has taken out a permit for the erection of a $2,500 boat house on the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, between Thirty-seventh and Thirty-eighth streets.

A. A. Bennett has secured a permit for the erection of a $2,000 building on Thirty-second street.

Robert Tenney is repairing his home on Q street, near the corner of Thirty-first, preparatory to his occupying it again.

Lindsay E. Sinclair, of O street, has purchased a house at Inglefield.

Patrick T. Moran, of 3420 P street, has returned from a European trip.

Leonard Owens, the son of James L. Owens, of Thirty-seventh street extended, who fell from his wheel and was painfully injured several days ago, is able to get out again.

W. A. Jordan, formerly lieutenant of the Seventh precinct, who retired on account of ill health, accompanied by Mrs. Jordan, has returned from Round Hill, Va., where he spent the summer. The funeral of Mrs. Isabelle Coale

Meade, who died last Wednesday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Bishop, 3036 Dumbarton avenue, took place Friday morning at 10 o'clock from St. Paul's Episcopal Church, on Twenty-third street, near Washington circle. The interment was private.

Wilson's Return.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse H. Wilson and family, who have been spending the summer at their new home at Washington Grove, have returned to their winter residence, 2914 P street.

Howard Nyman, collector of customs of the Georgetown port, is away on his vacation.

Charles P. Copley of the Farmers and Mechanics National Bank force, who has been out of town for the past two weeks on his vacation, is expected to return in a day or two.

Harry Kleinschmidt, who has been ill at the Georgetown University Hospital for the past month suffering from an attack of typhoid fever, is rapidly recovering and will be able to be out in a week or two. About ten days ago his condition was regarded as critical.

Walter Palmer, of Virginia, has purchased house 1418 Thirty-third street, known as the Viers house. Mr. Palmer will occupy the house as a home.

Mrs. Ortmann, of 3316 P street, has recovered from an illness of several weeks. Last week she underwent an operation.

Kensington

A number of Kensington's young men left home this week for college. Parker Warner left Tuesday for Lafayette College at Easton, Pa., where he is preparing for the degree of electrical engineer. Henry F. Cunningham is beginning a similar course at the Worcester Polytechnic Institute, in Massachusetts.

Philip McQueen went last Saturday to pursue his studies at Lehigh University, Bethlehem, Pa., in civil engineering. Benjamin Perry has gone to Baltimore, where he will complete his course in medicine at the Johns Hopkins University.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Boynton are spending a brief vacation in Washington and Kensington, after having been on the isthmus for a number of months, where Mr. Boynton is connected with the canal commission.

Miss Julia Langille is home again after spending the summer in Wisconsin, Illinois, and Ohio.

Mrs. Ralph Goodner and her son, who have been the guests of Mrs. Merritt O. Chance, have returned to their home in Ashville, Ill.

The Kensington baseball club won a game from the Herndon, Va., team last Saturday, the score being 2 to 0.

The Epworth League of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church are planning a series of socials to be held on the first Friday of each month. The first will be held in the church parlors on Friday, October 5.

Mrs. Alfred Dalton and her mother, Mrs. J. H. Surratt, have returned home from a visit to Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hartshorn and family came home on Tuesday after a stay of some weeks in New York State. George Taylor and his family moved into Washington last Tuesday. Mr. Taylor has sold his house on Connecticut avenue to Mr. Forbes, who, with his family, will shortly occupy it. Mr. Forbes has been occupying the residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Geddes, on Carroll place.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.

The local branch of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union met on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Frank Chapman. It was decided to pay a visit to the county almshouse in the near future and provide dainties for the inmates. An appeal for money, reading matter, quilt pieces, and other needed articles will be made from the pulpits of the churches on Sunday next. Mrs. Chapman was chosen delegate to the State convention, to meet in Baltimore October 25.

Appropriations were made to the public kindergarten of Baltimore and to the Anti-Saloon League work.

The Woman's Missionary and Aid societies of St. Paul's M. E. Church met with Mrs. Defendorf, of Garrett Park, on Wednesday. New officers for the two missionary societies were chosen as follows:

The Ladies' Home Missionary Society—President, Mrs. T. S. Garrett; secretary, Mrs. George W. Stokes; treasurer, Mrs. Arthur Hendricks. The Ladies' Foreign Missionary Society—President, Mrs. George W. Ashworth; secretary, Mrs. William E. Dulin; treasurer, Mrs. Edgar Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Snyder have returned home after a week's sojourn at Atlantic City. They have as a guest Miss Jean Swart, of Elizabeth, N. J.

Through the efforts of the pastor, the Rev. John Still, and the trustees Lee Chapel congregation held a barbecue and festival on Thursday. A band came over from Sandy Spring to furnish music for the occasion and those in attendance had a most enjoyable time.

The permanent colored population is small, and they deserve great credit for their efforts in establishing the chapel and for their energy displayed in trying to liquidate the debt still owing on the building. The trustees of the church are Alexander Datcher, Silas Hall, and Joe Adams.

Opening of School.

Columbia School will open next Wednesday, September 27, and the prospects are bright for a large attendance this year of girls as well as boys. The school is still located on Knowles avenue, although Prof. and Mrs. Merriman are planning the building of a more suitable edifice in the near future.

Miss Kate Pratt is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hoel McQueen, at Capitol View. Miss Eleanor McQueen has returned to America from her trip abroad, but will remain in Montreal for several weeks before returning to her home.

Mrs. Paul Putzki entertained a number of friends at luncheon on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. James B. Cook leave for Chicago this week, where they will spend some time visiting relatives.

The country school board, represented by Messrs. White and Lewis, from Rockville, visited the Kensington schools on Wednesday.

The first meeting for the season of the Woman's Club of Kensington, which will be held next Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the president, Mrs. J. Harry Cunningham.

Northeast Washington.

R. H. Young and family moved last week from 620 K street to 1234 I street. On Wednesday night the youngest member of the family was christened Richard Blakemore Young, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. D. L. Blakemore, pastor of the Epworth M. E. Church South. Among those witnessing the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Compton, the Misses Young, Arlene Young, Mr. Pearson, and Mrs. McKenny.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Baker, of 12294 C street, have returned from a two-weeks' vacation, visiting Richmond and other points.

Miss Eva Streshley, of Fredericksburg, Va., is visiting Mrs. C. C. Holland, at 656 Sixth street.

The Rev. A. C. Wright, pastor of the Central Baptist Church, spent the day last Monday, in Fredericksburg, Va.

Capt. O. H. Lake, of 556 Sixth street, was in New York last week.

Revival services were held every evening last week in the tented hall, which was held next month. Last Wednesday evening the women of the Ladies' Benevolent Legion gave an entertainment and dance in the parish hall, the proceeds of which will be used to fit out a table for the bazaar.

The Epworth M. E. Church South, returned Monday from Round Hill, Va., where they held a convention of the Epworth League, he being the field secretary of that body.

Hyattsville

Miss Marie McFarland has returned from a two months' visit to New York State.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Richardson spent some time in Smithsburg, Md.

Mrs. J. Waters Cooke has been visiting friends in Howard county.

Miss Mamie Tise, who has been under treatment in a Baltimore hospital since June 1, returned on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Kaufman, of Washington, and B. Wineberg, of Philadelphia, were the guests of Mrs. C. E. Steinmeyer, of Riverdale, on Sunday last.

Mrs. Dr. Bennett, of Riverdale, is visiting friends in Richmond, Va.

Miss Christine Owens, of Baltimore, after a two weeks' stay in Baltimore county, returned to her home in Riverdale, Md.

Miss Warder, of Washington, has been visiting Miss Anna M. Browning, of Riverdale, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Beatty, a lively stable proprietor of Washington, was held up on Tuesday for driving over the bridge of the Washington and Bladensburg turnpike faster than a walk. He paid a fine of $5.

The Maryland Agricultural College opened on Thursday, with an enrollment which promises to break even last year's record when the late comers are all in. Since the academic course has been abandoned the facilities for technical and scientific work have been greatly improved, until the college is recognized as a first-class institution.

During the summer the buildings have been improved and new granolithic walks laid.

The first arrest made in this county on account of the violation of the new automobile law, which requires automobiles running through the State to have a license, occurred on Tuesday last, when Officers Payne and Raybold arrested Charles M. Beck. The case was tried before Justice Dahler, of Bladensburg, who imposed a small fine. The fine and costs, amounting to $5, were paid.

A large party of young people participated in a straw ride to Washington on Thursday evening. Mrs. Hasson acted as chaperon. The crowd was composed of Messrs. Richard Diggs, Fred Grumley, Enos and Grover Harman, Will Gager, Irwin Scaggs, Joseph and Howard, Harry Kaufman, Millard Hall, Eugene Bick, and Edgar Gage. The Misses Bessie Scaggs, Ida Scaggs, Lottie Bowen, Edna Gage, Celia Hurley, Elsie Hall, and Bessie Morrison.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wolf Smith entertained a few of their friends at their home on K street, Tuesday evening. The guests played whist, after which they were entertained by vocal selections rendered by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rogers, Mr. Rufus Andros, and Miss Mae Rogers, accompanied by Miss Keenan. After the musical program refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Dobbs, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Welsh, Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Owens, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. White, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Magruder, Mrs. J. E. Latimer, Miss Mae Rogers, Miss Keenan, Dr. A. Wells, George M. Smith, J. H. Rogers, F. W. and J. G. Holden, Rufus Andros, and Edward A. Fuller.

Rockville

Col. Spencer C. Jones and his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Falvy, of New Orleans, left here last Saturday to spend several weeks with relatives and friends in Virginia.

John Monday and family, for a number of years residents of Washington, have taken a house in Rockville, where they will reside.

Miss Helen Talbot, daughter of H. Maurice Talbot, reached her home here last week after a tour of Europe. While abroad she visited many places of interest in England, France, Italy and Switzerland.

At a meeting of the board of directors on Wednesday, Spencer C. Jones, of Rockville, was unanimously elected director of the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Montgomery county, succeeding Charles G. Porter, resigned. Mr. Jones is president of the Montgomery County National Bank of Rockville.

Upon the arrival of Lewis L. Lloyd and his bride at Gaithersburg Thursday of last week, they were given a dinner party by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Gloyd, parents of the groom. The bride was formerly Miss Florence Bein, of Baltimore, Md., in which city the marriage occurred, on Thursday morning of last week. They subsequently left for Wilmington, Del.

Northern Tour.

William R. Pumphrey, Jr., and sister, Miss Lottie Pumphrey, of this town, left here last week for a trip to Niagara Falls, Toronto, Detroit, and other places. They will be gone about two weeks.

Mrs. Virginia Baggarly left here last Saturday to assume the position of preceptress and instructress in art in the Kensington Public School. Mrs. Baggarly has been a resident here for a number of years, and carries with her the best wishes of her many friends in this community.

Thomas D. Griffith, of Redland, this county, has been selected as one of the judges of the sixteenth annual field trials of the National Beagle Club, of America, to be held at Stevenson, Baltimore county, Md., commencing October 30.

Mrs. Susan M. Belt, one of the oldest residents of this section of the county, died on Sunday last at her home, near Hunting Hill, this county, aged eighty-one years. She was a sister of the late Edward Belt, with whom she made her home for many years. The deceased was afflicted for several years. Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. R. L. McNair, in the Rockville Presbyterian Church, and interment was made in Rockville Cemetery.

Elisha Jones Dead.

Elisha Jones died at his home in Howard county, Md., on Sunday last, of a complication of diseases, aged forty-five years. Mr. Jones was well known throughout this section of the State, and was a son of the late Edan A. Jones, and a nephew of S. O. Jones, of Gaithersburg, this county. His mother was before marriage, Miss Rachael Riggs, a daughter of the late Elisha Riggs, of this county. He leaves a widow and four children. His widow is a daughter of the late Henry Banks, of Howard county, Md.

A large number of Democrats of Glen Echo and vicinity met on Monday evening last and organized what is to be known as the Glen Echo Democratic Club. Officers were elected as follows: Jacob J. Decker, president; John R. Johnston, secretary; John A. Garrett, treasurer; vice presidents, Thomas A. Weaver, George W. O'Brien, Andrew J. Cummings, and Wilson, James T. Bean, and M. Wilson Offutt. The executive committee is composed of N. M. Perry, W. C. Carroll, Lloyd T. Everett, John L. Lewis, M. Wilson Offutt.

The registration committee is composed of H. A. Loughborough, James T. Bean, Albert Wilson, I. S. Hendry, S. D. Caldwell, and Edward H. Bogley. The reception committee is composed of John A. Garrett, chairman; N. M. Perry, and J. J. Decker. The club meets every Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. Prominent speakers will address the public when the campaign opens in this county.

The young people of the Methodist Church, at Gaithersburg, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Canode, at their home, Middlebrook farm, near Gaithersburg. They went out on a straw ride. It was the occasion of the regular monthly meeting of the Epworth League, under the auspices of which an interesting program was rendered. After the business and literary features, refreshments were served.

Brookland

Mrs. W. L. Johnston and granddaughter, Miss Margaret Baumer, of Tenth and Lawrence streets, have returned from Atlantic City.

W. B. Dugan has moved into the house recently vacated by Bushrod Washington, 325 Twelfth street.

The many friends of Miss Martina C. Ynaza, formerly of Brookland, will be grieved to learn of her death, at Vancouver, British Columbia, Wash.

Mrs. Franz died suddenly at her home, at the corner of Twelfth street and Brentwood road, last Thursday morning.

Miss Eva Wagonfield has returned from Upper Marlboro, Md., where she was the guest of Miss Annie Swart.

Miss Dora Langigan, who has spent most of her summer in Cincinnati, Ohio, has returned to her home, at the corner of Thirtieth and Evans streets.

C. Chamberlain and family have moved to Riverdale, Md., where they expect to live during the winter months.

Colonel Lewis will move into his house on Twelfth and Monroe streets during the coming week.

Mrs. Burke, Mrs. M. Downing, and Miss Kathleen Noel, who have spent most of their summer in Europe, expect to be home about October 1. They left Naples last Thursday morning.

Miss Henry Returns.

Miss May Henry has returned from New York, where she visited many relatives and friends.

Mrs. F. H. Watson, of Sixteenth and Newton streets, is visiting relatives in Newton, Mass.

Miss Merle Whiteside, who has spent several weeks with relatives in Gaithersburg, Md., has returned to her home, corner of Twelfth and Lawrence streets.

Dr. Franklin T. Howe and daughter, Miss Katherine L. Howe, will leave Saturday for Europe, where they will join the rest of the family.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Miss Marian Smith, corner of Sixteenth and Jackson streets, last Friday. Songs, games and dancing were the chief features of the evening.

A new parochial school will be opened on October 1 in the old Brooks mansion under the direction of the Benedictine Sisters.

The Brookland football team has been out for practice during the past week and is slowly rounding into shape. The manager would like to hear from any team in the city averaging from 120 to 140 points. Address: E. B. Daniels, Twelfth and Newton streets, Brookland, D. C.

The Catholic University will open the undergraduate courses on October 2.

Alexandria

Sergis, Charles M. Smith and Leo T. Downey, Corporals R. P. A. Johnson, William Helmut, R. Hoffman and Cadet T. H. Clarke, left Alexandria for Blacksburg, where they will resume their studies at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute next week.

Mrs. Cecelia Potter, of New York, who has been visiting relatives in this city, returned home last week.

Charles J. Deahl, Jr., who has been visiting the family of Mrs. Stephen Woolis, in Richmond, has returned to Alexandria last week.

Mrs. Park Agnew and daughter, Miss Mamie, are spending some time at Markham, Va.